About Cumpson, Sensei

Richard Cumpson, Sensei is an instructor with over 10 years of experience teaching the martial arts. Having trained in some of the rarest martial arts in the world, traditional Ninjutsu and Krabikrabong. Cumpson, Sensei has dedicated much of his life to becoming a well rounded, knowledgeable, and understanding instructor. In addition to teaching, sensei is an avid competitor, having fought in full contact, bare knuckle, Muay Thai, and MMA professionally.

Cumpson, Sensei holds 3 black belts, 1 honorary, and 4 letters of Instructor certification. Sensei has held seminars and camps in the U.S., Japan and South Africa. Sensei has also won various titles and had also fought in some bigger tournaments like Sabaki, K1, and Valor being seen on Pay per view and ESPN.

Cumpson, Sensei's goal is to pass on the knowledge that he has been given and to once again build the name of Ninjutsu. He wants to keep people away from the instructors who are only interested in the commercial aspect of martial arts and show people realistic moves that can be used in extreme situations. Honor, Respect, Pride, and Duty to help others is what people should gain, not aggression, Hate, and arrogance like what is taught at many schools.
